Your personal information may also be disclosed to and published by Racing Victoria, its associates (including Victorian Thoroughbred Racing IMB Pty Ltd (including its businesses trading as Best Bets, Winning Post and Racing Photos) Racing.com, Victorian thoroughbred race clubs and Racing Australia) or media organisations for integrity purposes and for the administration of thoroughbred racing, such as the publication of race fields and calendars, issuing media releases or Stewards reports (including future racing years).
- 1.9. We otherwise use, disclose and handle your personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy available at <https://www.racingvictoria.com.au/privacy-policy>. If you are concerned about a possible interference with your privacy, please contact Racing Victoria's Privacy Officer at privacyofficer@racingvictoria.net.au. Privacy complaints to Racing Victoria must be made in writing.

2. Rules of Racing

I Acknowledge and agree to be bound by the Rules of Racing, including the following relating to Betting: AR 237

1. A trainer must not lay any horse that is either under the trainer's care, control or supervision, or has been at any time in the preceding 21 days.
2. A person employed by a trainer in connection with the training or care of horses must not lay any horse under the care, control or supervision of the trainer for whom the person is or was employed while employed and for a period of 21 days after ceasing to be employed.
3. An owner or nominator must not lay any horse that is or may be entered by that owner or nominator or on that person's behalf, provided that a bookmaker may lay a horse in accordance with the bookmaker's licence.
4. A rider's agent must not lay any horse to be ridden by a rider for whom that person is an agent.
5. A person who has provided a service/s connected with the keeping, training or racing of a horse must not lay that horse within 21 days of last providing that service.
6. A person must not offer an inducement to a participant in racing with the intention of profiting from a horse not participating in an event to the best of its ability.
7. In circumstances where it is a breach of this rule for a person to lay a horse, it is also a breach of this rule for that person to:
 - a. have a horse laid on his or her behalf; or
 - b. receive any money or other valuable consideration in any way connected with the laying of the horse by another person.

LR 96 Person employed must not lay a horse

For the purposes of AR 237(2) a person employed by a trainer in connection with the training or care of racehorses includes any person registered in accordance with LR 45B and any reference to employment includes a reference to such registration.

3. Banned substances and medical exemptions under the Rules of Racing

Should your application or renewal for a stable employee be granted, you acknowledge that AR 136 & AR 137 of the Rules of Racing bans specific substances for riders and horse handlers when detected in a urine sample at a concentration above the respective threshold level.

If you are currently taking a substance (including if it was prescribed by a Medical Practitioner) that contains any substances listed as a banned substance for the purpose of the Rules of Racing (please refer to AR 136 for a rider or AR 137 for a horse handler), you must seek an exemption and comply with the requirements of AR 142. If so, please complete the below table and the Racing Victoria Compliance & Regulation Unit will contact you regarding next steps in processing your exemption request.

Further, if you require any updated exemption regarding banned substances throughout this racing year (or if you no longer require an exemption), please email cru@racingvictoria.net.au. If you do not obtain an exemption in advance, you may be in breach of AR 139 or AR 140 and be penalised or stood down.

INDUSTRY MANDATORY TRAINING (ATTACHMENT 1)

All registered Stable Employees, being Stablehands / Forepersons / Assistant Trainers and Racing Managers must complete skills training as outlined in Racing Victoria's Stable Employee Policy.

Therefore, a stable employee cannot work, or be registered to a licensed trainer, without the completion of this training. However, if you are a new worker to the industry, you will be given a period of time to complete this training.

What is the definition of a "new worker"?

A new worker is defined as somebody who has never been registered as a stable employee with Racing Victoria. In this instance, the new worker will have up to 12 months to complete this training, commencing from the date that their registration is temporarily approved by Racing Victoria. New workers may only be registered as Stablehands, without evidence of training or approved recognition of prior learning. To be registered as a Foreperson, Assistant Trainer or Racing Manager new workers must provide evidence of training or approval of recognition of prior learning.

What if I am only a visiting worker to Victoria?

A visiting worker is not required to complete training. The definition of a "visiting worker" is one who is working in Victoria for a maximum period of three (3) months and is, at all times, employed and registered by an interstate visiting trainer. Once the trainer returns to his or her home State, the registration of the visiting employee will automatically cease.

An outline of the specific nationally accredited training units required for each category of registration, is as follows:

Following is a frequently asked questions relating to the completion of this training. If you have any queries, do not hesitate to contact your nearest training provider:

What if I already have the skills and experience, or I have already completed some equine studies in the past?

You will still be required to complete the mandatory training. However, the process does allow for a "fast track" option, called Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL). Simply notify the training provider that you believe you have the necessary skills and experience, or have previously completed training. The training provider will then take your previous training or experience into consideration. Completing this training provides you with formal recognition for your level of experience gained over the years. It can also provide you with a pathway to further equine studies should you wish to become a licensed trainer or jockey.
