SUBJECT : APPEAL HEARING RESULT: APPRENTICE – LOGAN MCGILL

At Caulfield on Saturday 23 May 2009, RVL Stewards found apprentice jockey Logan McGill guilty of a charge of careless riding on his mount Tempest Tost in Race 8 the MRC Privileges Plate (1200 metres).

The careless riding being that approaching the 800m, he permitted his mount to shift out when insufficiently clear of Wojcinski, which was hampered, and in turn was taken out on to Burly Griffen, resulting in Burly Griffen having to be checked when racing between Wojcinski and Trustus (NZ).

Logan McGill had his permit to ride in races suspended for a period to commence midnight Tuesday 26 May 2009 and to expire midnight Tuesday 9 June 2009, a total of 14 race meetings (5 metro, 9 provincial). In arriving at penalty, Stewards were of the view that the careless riding qualified in the mid-range category and that his careless riding record did not allow for any concession.

A Notice of Appeal against the decision and severity of the penalty was lodged on Monday 25 May 2009.

A stay of proceedings was granted effective until midnight Thursday 28 May 2009.

DECISION: Appeal dismissed.
Penalty varied – suspension to now expire at midnight Tuesday 9 June 2009.
