For the purposes of an application for a Partnership Club Bookmaker Licence, the following key term is defined:

Associate

(a) a person who holds or will hold any relevant financial interest, or is or will be entitled to exercise any relevant power (whether in right of the person or on behalf of any other person) in the Applicant's business, and by virtue of that interest or power, is able or will be able to exercise a significant influence over or with respect to the management or operation of that business; or

(b) a person who is or will be an executive officer, whether in right of the person or on behalf of any other person, of the Applicant's business; or

(c) if the Applicant is a natural person, a person who is a relative of the Applicant.

The terms "executive officer", "relative", "relevant financial interest" and "relevant power" have the following meanings:

executive officer, in relation to an incorporated entity, means— (a) a director, secretary or other officer (by whatever name called); or (b) any other person who is concerned with, or takes part in, the management of the entity, whether or not the person's position is given the name of executive officer;

relative, in relation to a person, means— (a) the spouse or domestic partner of the person; or (b) a son or daughter of that person;

relevant financial interest, in relation to the Applicant, means— (a) any share in the capital of the Applicant; or (b) any entitlement to receive any income derived from the Applicant’s business; or (c) any entitlement to receive any payment as a result of money advanced; and relevant power means any power, whether exercisable by voting or otherwise and whether exercisable alone or in association with others— (a) to participate in any directorial, managerial, or executive decision; or (b) to elect or appoint any person as an executive officer.

[Where an Applicant or its ultimate parent company is listed on the Australian Securities Exchange or another similar exchange, the term “relevant financial interest” will not, unless Racing Victoria determines otherwise, apply to any shareholder of the Applicant or its ultimate parent company (as applicable), or any other person, unless the relevant financial interest is such that it is equivalent to a 10% or greater shareholding in the capital of the Applicant or its ultimate parent company (as applicable).]

SECTION 6: PRIVACY COLLECTION STATEMENT

Racing Victoria Limited (ACN 096 917 930) (RV) is the Principal Racing Authority governing thoroughbred racing in Victoria, and carries out the following functions in respect of bookmakers it licenses:

- determining and issuing bookmakers' club licences;
- regulating bookmakers including monitoring compliance with licence conditions;
- monitoring bookmakers and betting transactions;
- ensuring the integrity and probity of bookmaking businesses; and
- ensuring the efficient operation of bookmaking services.

RV is collecting your personal information on this form, including your name, contact details and financial information. We may also be collecting personal information about you which may be considered sensitive or protected under applicable laws (such information may include your criminal record (including pending civil or criminal proceedings or charges)) that you may provide in this form or under your ongoing disclosure obligations.

The purpose of collecting your personal information is for our legitimate interests, including as required pursuant to the Rules of Racing and Bookmaker Rules made under the Racing Act 1958 (Vic), which require RV to collect information about bookmakers and betting transactions. Further, the collection of your personal information allows RV to perform its regulatory functions, including to

- make determinations in relation to your licence application, renewal or continuance; and
- meet its regulatory responsibilities in relation to you as a bookmaker.

If your personal information is not collected, either on this form or otherwise when requested by RV as part of its licensing and regulatory activities, we may not be able to process your application (and therefore refuse to grant your application or renew your licence, as the case may be) or may revoke or suspend your licence.

RV may also obtain personal (including sensitive) information about you from, or disclose your personal information to, third parties such as:

- entities set out in section 91E of the Racing Act 1958 (Vic);
- enforcement bodies (as defined in section 6 of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth));
- Federal or state government authorities (for example, the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation);
- racing control bodies (such as other PRA's and their equivalents in Greyhound and Harness) in the States and Territories of Australia and overseas;
- racing clubs;
- approved system providers, contractors and/or other service providers;
- wagering service providers; and
- the Victorian Bookmakers' Association Ltd.

Other than where described in this Privacy Collection Statement, RV's Privacy Policy or required by law, RV will keep your personal (including sensitive) information confidential.

We otherwise use, disclose and handle your personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy available at <https://www.racingvictoria.com.au/privacy-policy>. If you are concerned about a possible interference with your privacy, please contact RV's Privacy Officer at privacyofficer@racingvictoria.net.au. Privacy complaints to RV must be made in writing.

SECTION 7: PROVISION OF BETTING RECORDS

In order for RV to fulfil the Functions and Purpose described in Section 6 of this form, Rule 13.11.2 of the Club Bookmaker's License Rules 2010 (Club Bookmakers License Rules), a bookmaker must provide as directed by RV, all information, records or documents required by RV to verify the bookmaker's obligations under and compliance with the Bookmaker Rules and Rules of Racing made under the Racing Act 1958 (Vic) and any relevant law, including without limitation; information regarding bets made by the bookmaker (Betting Records). Such Betting Records are to be provided in the form and manner as may be required by the Authorised Officer (as defined in the Club Bookmaker's License Rules).

In addition to ensuring compliance with the Club Bookmakers License Rules, Rules of Racing, the Rules of Race Betting and the Bookmaker Rules (as amended from time to time) and any relevant law, this information may be used for reporting purposes.

RV may disclose Betting Records to third parties such as:

- entities set out in section 91E of the Racing Act 1958 (Vic);
- enforcement bodies (as defined in section 6 of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth));
- Federal or state government authorities (for example, the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation);
- racing control bodies (such as other PRA's and their equivalents in Greyhound and Harness) in the States and Territories of Australia and overseas;
- racing clubs;
- approved system providers, contractors and/or other service providers;
- wagering service providers; and
- the Victorian Bookmakers' Association Ltd.

SECTION 8: DECLARATIONS
